

Handgun/Patrol Rifle Instructor Course

Location: Woodburn Police Department Firing Range
Dates: September 14-18 and 21-25, 2009
Time: 0800-1700 daily (lunch on your own)
Cost: $600.00

Target Audience: All sworn Police/Corrections/Parole & Probation personnel, Firearms Instructor refresher or recertification.

Instructors: Captain Charlie Blevins, Woodburn PD (charles.blevins@ci.woodburn.or.us); Captain Jason Alexander, Woodburn PD; Sgt. Jason Millican, Woodburn PD; Sgt. Russ Morris, Salem PD.

This firearms instructor school will start with the basics and progress to advanced police combat shooting integrating handgun with MP5 or AR15 rifles. The student will learn different police combat shooting drills to use as building blocks from which to construct realistic shooting scenarios based on actual officer involved shootings. A variety of steel targets as well as moving targets will be used to construct tactical courses of fire. This course is physically demanding. Instructor manuals and classroom materials will be provided. After successful course completion, the student will be certified as a Firearms Instructor and Patrol Rifle Instructor.

Required Equipment: 3000 FRANGIBLE handgun rounds
1000 FRANGIBLE rifle rounds
Full duty belt including handgun and 3 magazines
Patrol rifle with two connected magazines
Knee and elbow pads
Eye and ear protection
Ball cap
Soft body armor

Handgun/Patrol Rifle Instructor Course Registration September 14-28 and 21-25, 2009

Please complete bottom portion and return with payment of $600.00 per attendee (checks payable to "City of Woodburn") to:

Woodburn Police Department
Attention: Nita Marr
1060 Mount Hood Avenue
Woodburn OR 97071

Name:
Address: City/State/ZIP
Phone/FAX:
e-mail address:

For further information, please contact Nita Marr at (503) 982-2359, or nita.marr@ci.woodburn.or.us